³⁶⁰ Trajan received the title ΠΑΡΘΙΚΟC (Parthicus) in 116 and died in 117.

³⁶¹ Waage notes the bust variety as "drapery on shoulder(?)".

³⁶² The end of the legend is illegible, but style and lettering are similar to the issue with legend ending ΠΑΡΘ.

³⁶³ Butcher 212b is a similar coin which Butcher catalogues as having no numeral-letter, but based on the photograph in Butcher's plate it may only be illegible.

³⁶⁴ Waage could not make out the inscription on these coins, but it seems safe to place them under this legend because all examples with legible legends and this bust type are of this type.

³⁶⁵ The ANS coin has a letter which is either I with a leg (die break?) to right or an incomplete K. It is struck on a larger (30 mm) beveled flan.

³⁶⁶ This coin is struck from the same obverse die as no. 504.
